OF ENCLS: ACQUIRED DATE OF INFO. SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X 25X1X A police officer recently transferred to the headquarters of the paramilitary police ("Hauptvervaltung für Ausbildung"), who had served in the German Navy during the war, was told by Chief Inspector Heitsch that he is slated for an assignment as naval instructor. Heitsch added that the final decision on the organization of naval training facilities would be reached before the end of January. # 25X1X The Police College (Höhere Polizeischule) of the CAI at Kochstedt was taken over in September 1949 and converted into an advanced training school for paramilitary officers.  The commandant of the school is ex-General Freytag (born about 1891), who was captured by Soviet forces in East Prussia in 1945 and returned to Germany with several other former generals in 1949. His chief of staff is a former General Staff major named von Vitzleben. 3. Several instances have been noted where the Sovietniks attached to paramilitary units are assisted by junior officers of the IVD (presumed to belong in fact to the MGB). For example, the Bereitschaft in Apollensdorf (Category C) has an IND lieutenant; the Cotegory A Bereitschaft at Küchensee has in the came position a German-speaking Russian named Levin who claims to be a civilian and refuses to divulge his military rank. The main function of these assistants seems to be the continuous vetting of personnel. 25X1X Compant: The training of policemen in navigation as reported in reported that the police were to be equipped with 25X1A boats; an undissominated report states that this equipment will consist of eight torredo boats and 12 speed-boats. 25X1A 25X1X₩ Comment: This corrects the statement advanced training school at Kochstedt was as yet only in the planning stage.
